Help!!: There’s a Genealogist at the Desk: A Look at Genealogy Resources Available for Libraries

A Select Bibliography of Resources

Note: Resources are listed in relation to the Powerpoint Presentation used for this session. It can be found here.

Know What You Have and What Questions to Ask

Learn the Language

Help!!: There’s a Genealogist at the Desk: A Look at Genealogy Resources Available for Libraries

A Select Bibliography of Resources

Where to Begin

Know Thy Neighbors and Call in the Experts

  - Several library systems have sizeable genealogy/local history collections. Below are a few.
    - Athens Regional (Headquarters)
    - Cobb County
    - Live Oak (Bull Street)
    - Middle Georgia (Washington Memorial)
    - Moultrie-Colquitt (Ellen Payne Odom Genealogical Library)
    - Ohoopee Regional (Ladson Genealogical)

A Select Bibliography of Resources

Do A Little Homework

- GALILEO

- HeritageQuest –

- Carterette Series Webinars – GLA

- YouTube – Do a search for genealogy.
  - Here are some recommended “channels”
    - Ancestry
    - FamilySearch
    - Google Genealogist
    - Lisa Louis Cooke’s Genealogy Gems
    - US National Archives

- Brigham Young University Online Genealogy Classes
A Select Bibliography of Resources

Additional Resources

- Finding PDFs on Google:
  - filetype: This search will limit results to a particular filetype. For example, if you are looking for the genealogy related pdfs, your search would look like this: Genealogy filetype:pdf